History

The TransMountain Challenge is one of El Paso's premier athletic competitions. Originally started by Pat O'Rourke, the event is now celebrating its 30th year. The course reaches an elevation of 5,250 feet and tests the strength, stamina, athletic ability of people of all ages.

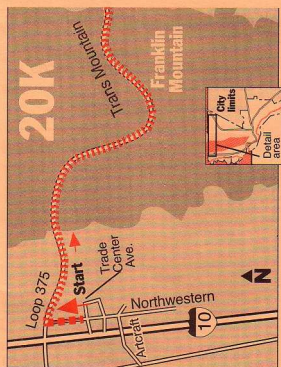

The cause

The El Paso Times Seniors Fund, a nonprofit charity, now in its 55th year. The fund helps senior citizens with basic services not provided by private insurance, Social Security, Medicaid or Medicare. It is the only charity of its kind; in El Paso and is operated in conjunction with the Rio Grande Council of Governments Area Agency on Aging, which helps identify seniors in need.

Getting there

Take I-10 to Arcraft and turn left on Northwestern. The Trans Mountain exit will be closed to traffic the morning of the race.

The course will go to the top of the mountain and turn around and going back down Trans Mountain to the original start line and finishing there.

Note: All races will start and finish on the West Side this year!
